

SIKKIM REPORTER

REALITY • DELIVERED DAILY

GANGTOK | TUESDAY | SEPTEMBER 13 | 2016

NEWS ▶ 06

EDITORIAL ▶ 4

Better educational opportunities equal a brighter future

After Japan now Korea explores investment opportunities in Sikkim

Calvin Yi president of Wevio Global Inc. South Korea calls on CM

IPR East
Gangtok, Sept 12

Sikkim is now becoming the attractive destination for the foreign investors. A proactive approach on the part of State Government towards industrialization with peaceful environment and sound law and order is enough to lure foreign investors.

Mr. Calvin who was accompanied by his team and Principal Secretary Commerce and Industries Arvind Kumar and Principal Secretary Finance, M.G. Kiran, discussed in detail about his company's interest in investing in Sikkim.

Minister DT Lepcha calls for collaborated efforts from all for the development of Pakyong

Sikkim Reporter Bureau
Gangtok, Sept 12

A coordination meeting of Bazaar Development Committee, Pakyong Multipurpose Cooperative Society and Pakyong Satsang Committee held at Pakyong GPK on Sunday. The meeting was chaired by cum Minister Housing and Department of Sikkim.

South Dist Adm follows up CM's direction

IPR South
Namchi, Sept 12

DC (South) Mr. Raj Yadav conveyed a meeting at his Chamber to discuss in brief issues raised by the Chief Minister Pawan Chamling.

inspection at District Hospital the CMO (South) Dr. D.S. Kerong updated that the required estimates will be submitted soon.

Cabinet gives nod to Higher Education Financing Agency

SKM misleading people to attain political mileage: SDF political mileage the SKM Government encouraging the people of different communities and religious leaders on sensitive issues of the State. The SDF party has strongly condemned the irresponsible character and anti-people works of the SKM party. The ruling party has appeals the people to give strong support to such anti-people release stated that party is pro-people and has been in the interest of country and provided all essential facilities to the people up to the strong answer to this anti-people party.

ni felicitates Zoom Salghari

